Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Second Message to Seamen: His Relationship to the Harbor Workers and the Shipowners The bondman can feel no responsibility; he can have no sense of morality, of self-respect, or of honor; because he has no individual will. He is alone. Association for mutual aid is unthinkable. Deprived of his human estate he is degraded below the animal or vegetable kingdoms. Any man compelled to labor against his will, be it by an individual or by society, is a bondman. Let the American People beware of bondage being imposed upon any class. Toleration of it by workers is treason to American ideals. To resist it is the highest duty though the result may be prison or death. The share which any particular nation had in the use of and the power on the sea depended always on the number of its people who obtained their living by following sea occupations. Fishermen on the coasts, later on the banks, whalers, first in small boats along the coasts, later in large vessels following the, whale or seeking him,...
