Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Believe it or not, there are some men who long to settle down and give their hearts, bodies, and souls to only one woman. Some guys actually want to get married and raise families. Eddie Expat is not one of these men-or, at least he hasn't been for most of his life. He grew up a naughty boy, maturing just in time for a midlife crisis. Though his boyish charms are fading quickly and his former friends find him reprehensible and have labeled him a misogynist, Eddie continues to surround himself with women. He can't resist a damsel in distress, or the opportunity to contort her form into a variety of sexual positions. Eddie did get married, twice-first to a mean-spirited Italian woman who used what was beneath her panties to control him; and then to Evelyn, who was a bridesmaid at his first wedding. After divorcing his first wife, Eddie enters domestic bliss with Evelyn and has two daughters, and commits himself to equipping his children with the life skills needed to flourish in a man's world. As he attempts to do this and confront the fact that he is no longer the center of his wife's life, Eddie's climb up the corporate ladder plunges him into the world of exotic pole-dancing and not-so-exotic women in the clubs of Bangkok. Eddie submerges himself in a world of sleaze and immoral ooze, where he is outdone in a series of encounters with women thriving unconventionally in a world supposedly designed to disadvantage them. He watches in horror as his world splits down the sexual divide, and wonders what would happen if men and...
