

Common Sense for the Modern Man (Paperback)

By Pop

Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Have you ever heard the phrase Common sense is not so common ? In Common Sense for the Modern Man, author Jerry Bishop explains some common-sense practices that have been forgotten by many people. He also advises how you can correct these practices. Topics such as common sense while driving, walking, shopping, and proper phone etiquette are discussed. This book will help the reader get back to being polite and courteous while in the company of others and also during their everyday routines. Jerry Bishop spends his time with his dog in the suburbs of Chicago. He enjoys going for walks in the forest or along the shore of Lake Michigan - anything that gets his imagination moving and thoughts flying. His interests also include museums, art, theatre, and other books as well. As a hearty sense of adventure can stimulate the mind better than anything else, Jerry has found, he is always on the lookout for the next thing to do.
