Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This story of our four soul friends takes us through the astounding journey of Keanu, an athletic and attractive Native American who was unaware of the cold in the core of his being until. The circumstances of his life lead him to meet a female shaman who opened his inner doors embarking on the adventurous consciousness-journey of detachment and compassion. He learns that being successful means recognizing his true power and his calling, penetrating the obstacles that held him back in the past, and embracing every opportunity life offers him to feel and express happiness, serenity and enthusiasm. He became sensitive and loving, and stood tall with it; taking firm steps upon his new choices along his path of life. When he lost everything he thought was dear to him his soul friends appeared; Mark, David and Shauna offer him a new home. Does Keanu exist? You answer that for me please. When we would all sit on the balcony with advanced age, feet up relaxed, and we would be asked to tell our life-story as briefly as possible; which words would be spoken, and which ones would be felt by our hearts, yet kept inside the treasure box, silently embraced? This is one of these stories told from the core of the being, where we dare to dance while everybody is watching. It is all well, being who we are. Just being who we are. In acceptance, our wings can be spread. The third book on our four astral friends. Can you see the love between them, and how life brings them together each time anew? More importantly than coming together is the fact that they allow compassion, growth and companionship...
