Ledatape Organisation, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Includes interviews with: Johnny Strike (Crime) / Kim Salmon / Hugh Hefner / The Rock / Z-trip / DJ Necro / Pink Stainless Tail and articles on: AFL / Jandek / Joey Ramone / Techno / Victor Argo / Chopper / The Fall / Oz indie rock plus bonus snapshot segment featuring HUGE celebrities! Inspired by New York s legendary noise boys , 80s and 90s fanzines like Forced Exposure, B-side and Motorbooty and a lack of sex, Melbourne writer, musician, film-maker and suburban struggler, Aaron Goldberg presents in real print for the first time, a collection of non-fiction written works exploring his love for the not-quite popular pulp culture. Having no career plan, the worst networking skills on the planet (even in the Internet/blog age), and realising very quickly that his tastes were way too Kosher to get him aligned with any hipster scene, Goldberg knew he was never going to make a career (or even get laid) out of cultural writing . Having had some minor success as an artist in the early 90s in indie band the Earthmen , Goldberg s writing is a rare breed in this critic game, he understands what it s like actually being an artist with writing that aspires to capture the immediate ecstasy of the works themselves. Transplanting the by any means necessary with whenever I feel like it credo, Goldberg has compiled a collection of works that have appeared both online and off into this relaxed, inspired, organic (and often orgasmic) collection of interviews and essays. Sure anyone can write a blog, but hey, how many blogs can you read on the toilet/aeroplane/train?.
