Losing a key person in your life changes you in ways you can't even begin to imagine. And in ways that not everyone around you will understand. At first, you may feel like you can't go on without them. Later you may wonder why you still feel so sad. Everyone said you'd get over it, but you haven't. Why? It's okay. Whatever you're feeling. There isn't some set process we all go through when we lose someone. It isn't just A to B to forget they ever lived. Fact is, sometimes, with some losses, the pain never truly goes away. You just learn to live with it. That's what this book is here for. To let you know you're not alone and you can survive this no matter how you feel right now.
