PowerKids Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The dynamics of group bullying manifest in two ways: exclusion and ganging up. This type of bullying often happens around shifts in social groups. Defining cliques versus other social groups and examining the issues unique to this type of bullying, readers will discover new ways to stop this behavior. Students will learn how to deal with group bullying, how to seek help, ways to repair self-esteem, and why it is important to build a school community that respects everyone.
