

My Life: Global Society Rising (Paperback)

By Gunther Karger

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Gunther Karger tells of his miraculous escape from Nazi Germany at age six to Sweden where he lived in two foster homes and an orphanage. Then, he tells of his four years living in virtual slavery in a foster home in the U.S.A. The book covers his early career in the U.S. Air Force where he met his future wife, Shirley and his life journey with her. The book tells of his service in the Cold War and corporate America in an intelligence group sounding like a real life Jack Ryan of Tom Clancy stories. The second part of his book tells of America's decline after 9/11 and the major factors contributing. Finally he leads us through the present to the near future predicting how America despite its ongoing political self destruction gets saved by a general elected by a new third party. Gunther Karger based on his personal extremely wide experience and uncanny ability to perceive and understand the rising complexity of the evolving world gives a highly credible and believable projection of what will be seen over the next...
