Buddhism is virtually Hinduism, experienced and spoken by Gautam Buddha and properly channalised and perfected as a reformist movement."The Vedic Sages and Buddhist Saints had much in common in their practice of yoga. The Buddha emphasized the need for the mystical realization of the sage through deep meditation and called upon his disciples to follow the path of renunciation and yogic discipline; many Buddhist saints possessed supernatural powers through yoga. The Buddha also taught that all existence is subject to the law of karma, that rebirth is the lot of man, and that suffering is due to attachment-beliefs which were commonly held in his time by followers of the Vedas."The Veda could strengthen multi-cultural understanding between people of diverse cultures and increase tolerance and understanding. They decided that the strategy to embark on this task would be...
