Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Someone knocks at your door in the middle of the night. As you stumble forward in the darkness, a strange feeling comes over you—a sense of danger, of caution. You brush the feeling aside as you look out the peephole and see your late night visitors are just a pair of young children. You are puzzled as to why such young children are out by alone at night, but you see no reason to fear them. You breathe a sigh of relief, shrugging off the peculiar feelings. They are very young and excite a little sympathy from you; especially since you notice their clothes and haircuts seem a bit odd. Both children are trying to avoid the porch light and hiding their faces in the shadows, but you decide they are just shy. You feel a bit hesitant again, yet question the possible harm two small children can pose. Opening the door a crack to find out what they need, one of the children asks to come inside your home to use the phone. It seems they need to contact their mother so she won't worry. The sound of the child's voice sends a bit of a chill up your spine. She seems too authoritative and poised for one so young. You begin to question them and the girl's requests become more aggressive. You find yourself subconsciously opening the door up despite the fact these children are making you uncomfortable. As you realize what you are doing, one of the children steps forward a bit and what you see will haunt your nightmares for years to come. Fear sweeps over you and you find it difficult, despite the threat you feel, to turn...
