First Edition Design eBook Publishing, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Mr. Woolly, being a curious little sheep, loves to learn! Sometimes, his curiosity gets the better of him and he finds himself in another adventure, leading his barnyard friends as they discover life on the farm. Author Lisa A. Dabrowski's hand-crafted characters and photographs bring to life the charming, whimsical tale of Mr. Woolly and Friends in How the Barn Was Painted Purple. Visit Mr. Woolly and Friends online at Author Bio: Residing on Eastern Long Island's North Fork, Lisa A. Dabrowski, a grassroots, multi-talented artist, with a passion for nature, music, and storytelling, has been involved with raising animals all her life. In 1992, the real-life Easter and Friday were born, and both, along with Lisa's other menagerie members, have been the inspiration for characters in this book. For a number of years, Lisa, as Bo Peep, and Easter would make appearances at the local country fair and other community events, entertaining children young and old alike. More recently, Lisa, in honoring her own family's duck farming heritage, along with her pet duck, Roxy, have delighted crowds by bringing to life a part of Long Island's agricultural history. For Mr. Woolly and Friends, Lisa hand-crafted all the characters and set pieces, then photographed them in a way that would show their unique personalities. Mr. Woolly and Friends is just one of the many artistic endeavors by Lisa A. Dabrowski.
