

Under the Knife: Surgical Stories from Around the World

By Gulzar Mufti

Book Guild Ltd, 2016. Soft cover. Condition: New. Under the Knife takes readers on a journey through the day-to-day happenings and the highs and lows of the world of surgery. The book explores the patient-surgeon interface and provides a keen insight into the surgical persona and the public perception of surgeons. Gulzar Mufti has served for 25 years as a consultant urological surgeon in the NHS, as well as in the private sector. He also worked for over 20 years in a number of senior healthcare management roles, including Medical Director Medway NHS Foundation Trust and Care UK. Drawing on his varied surgical experience, he invites the reader into a world where the stakes are always high and the pressure to perform is immense. Whether light-hearted and humorous or poignant and dramatic, this collection of compelling, real-life anecdotes sheds light on the inner lives of surgeons and the deep questions and dilemmas they face in their everyday working life. "Surgery fed me with successes that kept me blooming, pumped me up with unexpected triumphs that made me wonder, challenged me with surprises that made me strong, bogged me down with sorrows that taught me the meaning of failure and made..."
