YOUR SEARCH FOR THE RIGHT COLLEGE: TIPS ON HOW TO START IT, FUND IT GET ACCEPTED (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Applying to College Starts Here! Going to college is what you want to do, but where do you start? Most people tell you to just start by searching online, but what exactly are you searching for? How exactly do you recognize a college that would be a right or a great fit for you? If this sounds like you, then college is probably your goal because it helps you: be who you want to be when you grow up, earn the type of money professionals do, or make your family proud of all that you have (and can) accomplish, then this book is for you! Author and Founder of CollegePATH, Inc., Kimba M. Williams has worked with college-bound students for over 10 years, helping them get admitted to awesome colleges and universities across the country, that each student describes as their best fit college. In this book, she shares the 6 Steps to Successfully Getting through the Complicated College Admissions Process so that you can find your best fit college, too! This book will help you: 1.Understand how to do the most effective research online to find the best college options for you 2.Design a college road map to get you on track with college applications, deadlines, and other tasks you must complete 3.Create a personal essay statement that makes you P.O.P. off the page and really stand out to college admissions officers 4.Learn about the Financial Aid Web and discover multiple sources of money for college that are available to YOU! 5.Know what to expect before and after you get to college and how to be prepared for it all! 6.Bonus! For students who are first to go to college...
