Behrman House Publishing. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 144 pages. Why do the disciples of the Ba al Shem Tov want to sneak out of prayer services How can it happen that when two men climb down a chimney, one comes out clean while the other comes out dirty What lesson does the mother teach her son by grabbing his pinky finger and pointing to his fingernail If God is everywhere, why does the seer of Lublin go into the forest to find GodThe answers to these curious questions, and many others, are revealed in the fifty-four stories in Three Times Chai. Storytelling has always been central to the Jewish tradition, and it s easy to understand why: A good story entertains, enlightens, and at its best, inspires. Each one can help us think about who we are, the nature of our relationships, and the way in which we would ideally lead our lives. The stories in Three Times Chai are diverse in origin, style, and content: There are classic Bible stories, rabbinic and modern commentary, folktales, and legends. And the rabbis who retell these stories are likewise diverse in their backgrounds and personal beliefs. Some of them are well-known in the Jewish community; some are well-known for their storytelling abilities; some have only just begun to establish their own voice. All of them retell their favorite stories...
