

A Knight of Spain: A Tale of Don Juan of Austria (Paperback)

By Marjorie Bowen

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Three young men were walking through one of the quietest streets of Alcala. Their rich appointments and courteous demeanour marked them as belonging to the noble youths who studied at the University of Alcala, which was as learned as Salamanca, and more fashionable, and gave a great air of dignity to the little town on the Henares, which, now in the height of its fame, consisted of streets of palaces, convents and colleges huddled together in massive splendour behind the old walls. It was midsummer, the air was tremulous with heat, and low, purple black clouds rolled up from the plains towards Madrid; beneath them shot the last rays of the fierce sun that ended in a glow of dun light on the white walls and coloured shutters of the silent houses of the silent street through which the three youths were walking in leisurely fashion, two of them with their arms interlinked and talking together, the third a little in advance with his eyes on the ground and his arms folded on his chest. At the corner of the street stood...
