Excerpt: . what is dearest to us, and a funeral and a headstone to mark the place, hard as it is, is as nothing compared to the death in life of an existence which is always dragging about a corpse. I have seen that not once nor twice. I want to save you from that. Di laid her face for a moment on the kind hand. I will bury my dead, she said. CHAPTER XXXVII. And now we believe in evil Where once we believed in good. The world, the flesh, and the devil Are easily understood. --Gordon. It seems a pity that our human destinies are too often so constituted that with our own hands we may annul in one hour--one hour of weakness--the long, slow work of our strength; annul the self-conquest and the renunciation of our best years. We ought to be...
