Excerpt from The Contributor, Vol. 1: March, 1880 It is sometimes said that we have fewer manifestations of healing in Zion than many of the Saints used to enjoy in the lands from whence they have gathered. One cause, if such be the case, is pointed out in the above. When the Lord dcliv ered the children of Israel from bondage, He promised them, if they would keep His commandments, that they should have none of the diseases that af?icted the Egyptians He has promised to heal our sick, conditionally; one condition being that they be not appointed unto death; in which event, also on certain conditions, they die unto the Lord; an other, the anointing with oil, and the prayer of faith by the Elders. Now, any one may anoint with oil, but every Elder cannot pray with faith. For faith is the gift of God, and is seldom given to thosewho knowingly break His command ments. By faith worlds have been cre ated, and the waves of the ocean have been stayed. With faith man has stopped the mouths of lions, and resisted and overcome fire. By it the sick have been healed, the dead raised, and Zion thus far established. Can we then be lieve God is willing to bestow this key of power upon the backbiter, false accuser, blasphemer, or upon him who says he loves God when he hates his brother? N o, we do not believe it.
