

A Kiss for Seor Guevara

By Terence Clarke

Booklocker.com. Paperback. Condition: New. 108 pages. Her mother Alma had told her about him, how he deserved being hunted down by the soldiers out there in the Yuro Ravine. And so Ofelia had thought quite a bit about Seor Guevara. . . The young girl Ofelia is given the task of caring for the badly wounded Che Guevara during the last two days of his life, in Bolivia in 1967. A world-renowned figure, the architect of the revolution in Cuba that brought Fidel Castro to power, Seor Guevara is abandoned and dying. During the clandestine moments that he and Ofelia have with each other, each discovers the possibility for love in a time of terrible war. Novelist, journalist and film maker Terence Clarke lives in San Francisco. He is the author of three critically acclaimed novels published by Mercury House and Ballantine Books: The Day Nothing Happened, My Father In The Night, and The King of Rumah Nadai. www.akissforsenorguevara.com This item ships from multiple locations.
