Not illustrated. 1891 Excerpt: .anapplication properly made to the Corporation of the City of London for four stalls in the wholesale Meat Market, to be placed at the disposal of the farmers of each of the provinces of Ireland, cannot well be refused; the application is an unusual one, and should be made in an exceptional manner to ensure success; an influential Committee should be formed, which the representative members of all political parties should be requested to take part in. That Committee should approach the Corporation in accordance with their usage and form, viz., by petition to the Common Council, who have shown that as present constituted it would receive such a petition, and deal with it in a manner worthy of the subject and petitioners; there are reasons to believe they would find a way to comply with their request. Such a movement promptly and gracefully made will...
