

Barty Crusoe and His Man Saturday: Illustrated (Paperback)

By Frances Hodgson Burnett

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Illustrated. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Barty Crusoe and His Man Saturday by Frances Hodgson Burnett, first published in 1909. This is the story of a young boy named Barty, who after reading Robinson Crusoe, decides he wants to be on a desert island as well. He has a magical friend, the Good Wolf, who is able to make that happen for him. What kind of adventures will he be able to go on? Admirers of Mrs. Burnett's The Good Wolf will welcome a continuation of many of its characters in Barty Crusoe, together with a host of new ones, such as the little monkey, Saturday, the Perfectly Polite Pirates, and their preceptor, Baboo Bajorum, a gorilla who made them polite! Imagine a small boy who, reading Robinson Crusoe, was able immediately to test some of the adventures through the kindly aid of the Good Wolf! It is pleasant to watch the apparent ease with which Mrs. Burnett imagines the inconsequential; her description of the battle between the polite and the impolite pirates is ridiculously - spirited. Frances Eliza Hodgson Burnett (1849-1924) was an...
