Goldenrain Group, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Riding the Bubble is the DAILY DIARY of a millionaire real estate investor learning the business from the ground up during the most volatile market in history. Anyone who has ever contemplated flipping houses or investing in real estate should read this book. Author Scott Benjamin began taking meticulous notes before owning any properties. He describes, in great detail, the process of finding, fixing and flipping his first house. His story includes the trials and tribulations of raising money, buying and developing land, purchasing an office building, owning rental property - all the way through the development of a 193-unit apartment complex and accumulation of over $2,000,000 of net worth. This book is uniquely written in real time over the course of 10 years of real estate growth. Learn and experience the thrills of making money during the rise of the real estate bubble and live alongside Scott during the crash that cost him millions of dollars. With complete honesty and open financial disclosures, Riding the Bubble will absolutely open your eyes and provide an insider s look into what real estate investing is all about.
