Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Eugene Parmer was born in Iron Hill, Iowa. He moved 40 miles north to the quiet town of Maquoketa before he went to fight in World War II. He joined the 92nd Signal Battalion, which furnished communications for the United States Army. While serving in Europe, Eugene was ordered to join American soldiers liberating the Dachau concentration camp near Munich, Germany. His order was to investigate the camp s communication equipment and report his findings to his commanding officer. When he arrived at Dachau, Eugene didn t want to park his weapons carrier at the main gate, so he drove to the side of the camp. There he saw coal cars parked on railroad tracks that led out of the camp. He was curious, so he climbed the ladder. Eugene was shocked by what he saw. There was no coal. The train car was full of human bodies. Then he looked in the second car, and there were even more bodies. What he saw appalled him and made him physically sick. He returned to the...
