Mackay, on the Debate on the Budget: March 26th, 1908 Whole statement before me. But it may be, and possibly it is. That in their statement they say that it was the Provincial Secretary that gave the promise in writing and it was the Premier who gave the verbal promise. (applause). As far as Toronto is concerned during the short period of eight months or so Messrs. Fiaveile. Davidson and Murray certainly deserve the thanks oi the public in attempting to give - as they claim they had the promise of the Premier and the Secretary to be allowed ot give - a strictly business and nonpartisan administration of the Liquor License system. They say, air, that both the Premier and the Minister responsible for this Department promised them a free hand in this respect. (applause). But, sir. We know the result. The lower element of the Conservative party proved too strong for this Government and this Government gave way to the hungry ward heeler with the result that the Commissioners resigned and the Inspector...
