Excerpt from A Souvenir of Sutro Heights Here the radiant land of sunset opens wide its Western door, W here the restless, moaning breakers reach their arms out evermore There is wrought a wondrous poem on the tablets of the rocks. Wrote with pen of blast and pick-axe, with the throes of earth quake shocks. All the instincts of the Poet matchless lines of beauty trace, Storied places yield their tribute to enhance the weird grace. T brought the glory of the ages, gleam of days, or gloom of nights, California s children thank you for this poem, Sutro Heights. Carrie Stevens Walter.
