I loved this sweet, family story. It is about a dog who makes special memories for his family! This is a great book to read with your child when you need a fun, uplifting story! Kids will learn to stand up to the bullies and take care of their friends by following James and Mandy in the corn maze. Rosco's antics had me smiling. He may be a rascal, but he always means well, and he always tries his best to behave for his owners.
