Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the United States Commissioner of Fisheries, Vol. 1 of 2: For the Fiscal Year 1928 With Appendixes The honorable the Secretary of Commerce. Dear Mr. Secretary: I have the honor to submit the following report of the major operations of the Bureau of Fisheries during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1928. The enlivening of the public conscience to the need for proper husbandry of our fisheries resources is the most heartening feature of the present fisheries situation. Greater interest in outdoor recreational pursuits and the development of strong organizations that are sponsoring the conservation of wild life have enlisted the active support of hundreds of thousands of our people in insuring the perpetuity of our fishery resources, as a result of which Federal and State agencies are expanding their facilities for handling and distributing fish and eggs for stocking streams in an effort to maintain the fish supply. The output of fish and eggs from the bureau s stations in 1927 exceeded 7,000,000,000, an increase of more than 550,000.000 over the high record of 1926. The number of cooperative fish nurseries increased from 55 in 1927 to 86 in 1928, distributed in 11 States. As a consequence of this expansion in hatching and rearing facilities, many more fish are reared to a length of 3 or 4 inches before being released in natural streams and ponds. The commercial fisheries of the United States, too, apparently are in a stronger economic condition than those of any other large fish-producing country in the world to-day, and they have come to appreciate better the importance of proper husbandry to insure continuity of supply. Coincident with...
