Lets Go Publish!, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. President Bush and President Obama both agreed that a database of health records needs to be established on behalf of the people. It is a good idea. There needs to be a record of each citizen in the United States so that it will be much easier to get a full picture of a patient in any medical provider setting from doctor s offices, laboratories, imaging, and other specialties. This book defines the terms for these online records and discusses the entities that would like to own your health data. It also offers suggestions as to which entity would be the proper custodian of such vital data. Most Americans are aware of the major battle on health insurance and healthcare reform as in Obamacare, which continues in the Halls of Congress even today. A Democratic Congress and the former POTUS decided by themselves to spend a trillion dollars on a government take-over of healthcare. They knew it would possibly improves the lives of just 17 of the people and they also knew that it would disrupt the lives of the other 83 by providing them with less healthcare, less medical provider choices, and more taxes. You cannot take $500 billion from Medicare for Obamacare and make Medicare better. It is insane. Will senior citizens have to find employment again to buy back what has been stolen by government without their permission? The big winners of course are trial lawyers and the big insurance companies. The people have been left holding the bag. In this book, we describe in reasonable detail in words that Americans can understand, how to make the healthcare system -- both ER and Medicaid more accountable so...
