

Season of Waiting (Paperback)

By Melanie Maniver

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Depression is well known to the Greatest Generation. And this author tells it like it was in Season of Waiting. The story takes place in Oakville, where Sarah and her friends must deal with the changes in their lives as the effects of the Great Depression become their reality. Melanie Maniver s first published book, Song of the Night Bird, is still selling after 30 years and Season of Waiting should be its equal. Sissie looked longingly at the perfume counter while Jean focused on the make-up. Both girls knew they could not buy anything, but it didn t cost anything to look. Nalton s Department Store was owned by the wealthiest family in Oakville, and Nancy Dalton was amazingly unaware of it, Nancy lived in the biggest house in town. It even had an iron fence around the five-acre front yard, and a movie was to be filmed in her home before too long. Nancy was not pretty and she knew it, but she also knew how to remember that she was in need of friends; and she really tried hard...
