Reviews

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who stutte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Oration on Death, and the Happiness of the Separate State, or the Pleasures of Paradise, With Their Probable Changes and Improvements Be it remembered, That on the twenty-fifth day of October, A.D. 1817, and in the forty-second year of the Independence of the United States of America, Manoah Bodman, of the said district, has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, to wit: - An Oration on Death, and the happiness of the separate state, or the pleasures of paradise, with their probable changes and improvements: the last of which is much quoted from the late Dr. Watts, interspersed, however, with divers poetical sketches of the authors, of various measures and metres. Also an Oration of the authors, written early in the spring of 1816, on the then present outpourings of the spirit of God, in New England, and through the world - our missions to Asia - touches on the Millennium and the dark periods, to the consummation of all things. Also, Four Hymns or Poems of the authors, on solemn and divine subjects, to wit: - One, on the great mortality of the women and children in William s burgh, which took place in the year 1788. One, a soliloquy, or rather conference between the divine attributes of mercy and justice, relative to the state of fallen man. One, on the joys of heaven, or the happiness of that glorious state. These two last were composed or written in or about the time of the great reformation in the year 1790. One, written early in. the spring of 1816, on the then present reformation, having...
