

Pra fit of the Slaves (Paperback)

By Marlin Dennis

Xlibris, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What s inside this book? What prompted me to write this novel are several facts that have existed here today and one that will exist forever. I love God and Jesus. That being the case, I want to share unfolded events in our past concerning humanity and culture. Being that God purposed and made everything and gave humans the free right to choose how to dictate their own lives, we can see in past times that although he s given us free will, in the mist of evil, he provides to us an open door of escape and salvation. Racism, slavery, and God--although the human characters and names in this book are fictitious, at some point in time in slavery, God has utilized and appointed individuals to set people free from affliction. Some of these people were discovered, and some were not. In my opinion, the person being used often gets more glory than God who concerted the motive. Whether he has directly guided someone or has given them an idea or vision, all good things that have happened in the past, present, and future...
