Interrup the traffic, indeed Does Sir Robert Peel s statue, in Cheapside, interrup the traffic? In Cheapside, that s no hauf the width o King William-street, an whaur mair vehicles pass in hauf an hoor than gang doon King Williamstreet in a fortnicht It s weel kenned it doesna . It divides the traffic, an furnishes a resting-place to foot passengers in crossing, and sae does King William himsel , in King William-street, City. If the fountain did interrump the traffic, what s the effec o the lang line o cabs an cars, on the croon o the causeway? It s the auld story o the wolf an the lamb. The fountain was doomed, an ony excuse wad dae to get rid o t. What do you think o the new version o the National Anthem to be sung by the Sunday School children when the Duke comes, as if the auld ane wasna gude eneuch for them? Hech, they ve improved it the wrang way, an a bonny farrago o haivers they hae made o t. Defective in rhyme, faulty in grammar, feeble in composition, it hasna even the redeeming feature o being theologically correc : --Then when our Lord shall come To take His children home With Him to reign, May she and they be found With heavenly glory crowned, Whilst peace and joy surround The Throne of God. Wha she represents is left entirely to the imagination,...
