

Nativity: A Christmas Tale

By Joseph Bottum

Audible Studios on Brilliance, 2017. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. Michael Stuyvesant was dying. A wealthy, courteous, and controlled man, all he wanted was to get to Denver to visit his children for one last Christmas. But sometimes even money, good manners, and a compulsive desire for order are not enough. God, the weather, a gigantic shopping-mall Santa Claus, and a pregnant girl who called herself Cheyenne - like the city. And a river, too. And a mountain and an Indian tribe. I looked it up - had other plans for him. Michael! Michael, oh my God, Michael! What did you do? he heard in a shriek behind him as he picked up the fallen weapon. He turned to see Cheyenne s head poking sideways out the open driver s-side door. Her elfin face, he thought distractedly - the triangular, fox-like face of an elf who thought he had just killed Santa Claus. And what else would she think? Michael Stuyvesant, a man who prided himself on the calm order of his life, stood with a tire iron in his hand, straddling the body of a titanic Kris Kringle while the fat snowflakes drifted down around...
