

Dragons Tongue (The Demon-Bound Duology) (Volume 1)

By Laura J Underwood

Yard Dog Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 436 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.1in. Alaric Braidwine, young mageborn bard in training, has no idea that hes about to become part of a legend. Traveling to Dun Gealach to learn magecraft under the Council of Mageborn, he finds himself drawn into a fiendish plot by a blood mage who wants to be a god. Alaric gets into more trouble than he ever dreamed possible for when he is accused of smuggling a demon into Dun Gealach, he becomes the target of the High Mages wrath. His only friends are the audacious and roguish Fenelon Greenfyn, the mystical Etienne Savala, and her apprentice Shona. Yet even these powerful friends are not enough when Alaric is kidnapped and taken hostage by Tane Doran and his musically-inclined demon, Vagner. It seems that Alaric has something Tane wants a key song learned from the famous bard Ronan Tey that tells where the legendary Dragons Tongue lies, and Tane will stop at nothing to have it. Suddenly Alaric finds himself playing reluctant hero, for within him is more than the secret of a single song and he wears the mark of the demon. Now he is hunted by...
