Healthy Life Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 3rd. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This new paraphrase is like a Reader s Digest version of the New Testament letters, capturing the original writers essential meaning in 21st Century language - easy to read and understand. Without chapters or verses, notes, references, cross references, theological or denominational slants, these letters flow much as they did when written nearly 2,000 years ago. Readers will be encouraged, perhaps even amazed, at just how practical, timeless, relevant, and alive these letters really are. Highly recommended for anyone seeking an introductory overview of the New Testament epistles. Rev. Biebel s masterful paraphrase brings the New Testament Letters to life for those who usually avoid the formal theological phraseology of many of the popular Bible translations. I applaud my fellow physicians who place Bibles in their waiting rooms and would recommend a volume of We ve God Mail as an additional consideration for patients in that setting. A person under the stress of medical or other concerns is likely to relate to and be comforted by this easy to read and understandable work. Its balance of scriptural accuracy and literary clarity is outstanding. I highly recommend this publication. - Jim Dill, MD [Co-author of 70 Ways to Beat 70] We ve Got Mail is a wonderfully fresh and appealing read that ministered to me, personally, during a time of severe testing. The author s loving and accurate paraphrasing of God s Word reflects a heart and mind matured from 40 years of pastoral experience. The book s clarity and contemporary language is especially relevant for high school/college students, new Christians and adults examining Christianity. You will enjoy receiving mail that has eternal consequences. -Robert W....
