Excerpt from Surgical Experiences in South Africa 1899-1900: Being Mainly a Clinical Study of the Nature and Effects of Injuries Produced by Bullets of Small Calibre My thanks are not less due to the Military Heads of Departments at the War Office, who have helped me in the collection of details as to the subsequent course Of many of the cases described, and in the acquisition of information regarding the weapons and ammunition treated of. I should particularly express my gratitude to Colonel Robb, of the adjutant-general s Department, and Colonel Montgomery, of the Ordnance Department. I am greatly indebted to my former colleague Mr. Cheate for two of the illustrations of wounds, and for permission to quote some of his other experience, and to Mr. Henry Catling, to whose skill I owe the majority of the skiagrams of the fractures under my observation at Wynberg and elsewhere.
