Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Credit Valley Railway The Credit Valley Railway Company has submitted a Petition to the Lieut. - Governor in Council. Together with the Petition, the Annual Report and a statement by the President and Directors were submitted to His Honour. These last will be found in the Appendix, as will the main features of the Petition, which, having called attention to the cheapness and excellence of the line, the rapid progress which has been made, and to other considerations, submits that the minimum rate of Provincial aid to Railways - namely, $2,000 per mile - has been proved to be wholly insufficient, and begs that the subsidy may be increased to $3,500; and that a further subsidy of the same amount may be granted for the portion of the railway Dot hitherto aided, and that less onerous conditions should be imposed - as, for instance, that payment should be made on completion of 10 or 20 miles of continuous grading, providing it were done at such points on the route as would make continuous connexion with existing lines of railway. These requests will not seem extravagant when the whole situation is taken in. Mr. Potter, the President of the Grand Trunk Railway, has aimed his cannon at Canada, and from the column of the Times, where Baron Grant s schemes used to be puffed, he seeks to shell the credit of the country. Nor has he been wholly unsuccessful, though his machinations have resulted in a spirited policy on the part of the Quebec Government, which will bring about with more speed and more certainty one of the events he sought to prevent taking place. He has been able...
