Collins, London, 2003. Soft cover. Condition: New. Reprint. The Collins Dog Training Handbook has been specially written to help owners understand that training their dog or puppy needn't be a chore. With step-by-step, illustrated instruction, this book will make dog training easy and fun. All dogs are happier with proper training, as are their owners. This book is based on the authors' tested 10-week training course, and builds up dog and trainer confidence step-by-step as each week progresses. The reader is taken through all aspects of dog training, with specially commissioned, clear step-by-step photographs. Each step is simply explained and there are useful checklists throughout. The Collins Dog Training Handbook will transform a lead-pulling, disobedient dog into a happy, obedient companion and not leave the owner exhausted. In fact, the emphasis throughout the book is on making the training both fun and easy to do.
