

Achtung Baby: An American Mom in Berlin Learns the Art of Raising Self-Reliant Children

By Sara Zaske

Picador. Hardcover. Condition: New. 256 pages. In the tradition of Bringing Up Bebe and Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother, a clarion call and practical guide for a return to rational parenting, from an American woman who learned how to raise strong, self-reliant children by following the common sense approach of German parenting. When Sara Zaske moved from Oregon to Berlin with her husband and toddler, she knew the transition would be multi-layered, adding parenting and then the birth of another child into the mix. She was surprised to discover that German parents give their children a great deal of freedom--much more than Americans. In Berlin, kids walk to school by themselves, ride the subway alone, climb giant play structures, cut food with sharp knives, even play with fire. But what she didnt realize was that German parents did not share her fears and their children were thriving. Was she doing the opposite of what she intended, which was to raise capable children Why was parenting culture so different in the States Through her own familys often funny experiences as well as interviews with other parents, teachers, and experts, Zaske shares the many unexpected parenting lessons she learned from living...
