My Lord, I understand you not; you treat me as a child and gibe at me, mislike my dress and my complexion, and anon you plead as it were lover-wise for the pasture of my lips. If I be child you have no need of my kisses; if woman, I should claim not gibes, but homage. Methinks you are an actor that hath but ill conned his part. Sey. A shrewd guess and a shrewd thrust. Yesterday thou wert a child, to be clipped and chidden and cajoled. But tis a tricky sprite, Dan Cupid; and his darts strike deeper than we know. Thou art not the child of yesterday;--and methinks, have played my lover s part too well. Ah! Bess! Bess! There is a fire in my veins and I am hungry for thy lips...
