Miss Thomson was 1 up on her opponent. The Rev. W. J. Ancient--suggestive name in connection with golf--of Halifax. Nova Scotia, preaching in St. Luke s Cathedral, has created a sensation by his remarks, and he is reported to have declared That women who come to church and approached the Holy Communion with all appearance of sincerity and humility, went on the golf links the next day and swore like troopers. There was a time when a gentleman forgetting himself and using profanity in the presence of a lady would instantly apologise in the most humble manner. The women golfers are highly indignant, and to-day a delegation from them waited upon Mr. Ancient and demanded a retraction. This Mr. Ancient declined to make, and reiterated what he had stated in his address. He further stated that ladies not only swore, but smoked on the golf links. The golf club will take official action to secure the vindication of the women members, who indignantly deny the aspersions. Mr. Ancient, however, is not likely to abandon his guns. The Chicago Post is responsible for the following statements reported to have been made by Harry Vardon in a letter to a Chicago friend: -- The rubber-cored golf belli has hurt..
