Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is written by an attorney who is licensed to practice law both in Washington DC and Nigeria. Her aim is to introduce the curious visitor or foreign investor to the economic activities and wonderful sunshine destinations that exist in Nigeria. This is the time to invest or at least visit Nigeria. The negative propaganda that some international communities publish against Nigeria is not stopping investors from Asia, East Europe, South Africa and United States from investing immensely in the different private sectors of the Nigerian economy. Nigeria is a growing economy with great economic potentials in various sectors: agriculture, infrastructure, energy, healthcare, tourism and so much more. Some United States members of Congress have recognized the importance of Nigeria in world economy, its strategic location in Africa and have shown concerns about the dominating presence of many Asian investors in Nigeria. To encourage and attract foreign investors, the Nigerian federal government has created extensive investment incentive programs which are detailed in this book. There are many stories of foreign investment companies who have successfully exploited the investment opportunities offered by Nigerian growing economy. This is the time to be part of the new world economic order. Those who allow the negative propaganda to distract them from what is happening in Nigeria would find out when it is already too late, that Nigeria is an economy to reckon with. If you want to diversify your investment, take a chance and explore Nigeria. By reading this book, the potential investor would get sufficient information concerning the best sectors in which to invest to maximize profit, the relevant legal provisions, necessary federal government agencies, and how to avoid pitfalls that...
