By Sunny Jetsun

Sunny Jetsun, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Judge us not for our weakness but for our Love Throughout Sunny Jetsun s art there is understanding, an equanimity from witnessing the Mind and a joyful Spiritual dynamic which is naturally alive These highest qualities are those described in the Four Sublime States by Nyanaponika Thera, Buddhist Publication Society. Kandy. Using inspiration from the Bhagavad Gita to put into context the psychological, nervous and mental disorders as a relative identification of the infinite which we all are. Who is it that can judge another when the ultimate realization is that we are all spiritual and the material idiosyncrasies existing for all of us are always changing but we become attached to their identification, we are in the cycle of cause and effect. The lists of illnesses indicates: There go I but for the grace of God Through empathy not judgment we can transcend these Forms, conditions, created by our ego-minds and live in more natural harmony; a life of equality in tune with mother nature, protecting and respecting each life form, each Cosmic Hologram, each crystal fractal, not to exploit...
