A Fool's journey begins with a single step Julia Morton Michaud has fled Chicago for her grandparents summer home in Michiana. She believes the cottage near Lake Michigan will be a refuge a quiet place for her to pursue a writing career while her spirit heals from a string of failed relationships. But her past keeps intruding. Her ex-husband, Lance, is under investigation for defrauding his wealthy investors, and the specter of having to testify at his trial hangs over her. She begins a new relationship with a man she hardly knows. And her neighbor and former lover, David Turner, is trapped in his own troubled marriage. Julia discovers a labyrinth in the woods near her cottage. It belongs to Elsie and Thea, the elderly ladies who live at the end of the lane. Julia wants to use it for meditation, but she doesn't know the risks. For the women have their own agenda, and it's tied to the rug Elsie is endlessly weaving. The truths Julia learns in the labyrinth have the potential to change all their lives if only she will take them to heart. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
