Sun Rising in the West: Does Japan Buy California? (Paperback)

Hypo to Helio Books, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In 2005, the president surprises the Senate with a treaty that sells California to Japan for $60 trillion. Even for such a staggering sum, nobody takes the treaty seriously--until California's Senator Matt Bomber Nakamura endorses it. Since he'll lose his job if the treaty goes through, he becomes a national hero--the Martyr to Zilching the Debt--and the treaty gains support. But his wife Barbara suspects the real reason behind his endorsement: he arm-twisted the promise of a huge bribe from Japan's ambassador. Barbara is determined to stop her husband at any cost, to save the Californians he's betraying. She has no money, no power, no influence--just determination. Nobody listens outside California, though, once Matt points out all of the fun ways Washington can spend $60 trillion. Even worse, her Japanese mother thinks the treaty is a godsend, and criticizes Barbara for publicly speaking against Matt. Meanwhile in Japan, young robotics engineer Hiroshi Iwata gradually realizes that the California Treaty would be his key to a better life. Eventually Hiroshi will work hard to thwart Barbara's efforts...

Reviews

Thorough information! Its this sort of good read. It is actually written in straightforward words rather than confusing. I am just delighted to let you know that this is basically the best book we have read within my personal existence and can be the greatest pdf for actually.
