Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Edens of Italy The writer of these chapters adopted a different method. Determined as far as practicable to see and explore every thing worthy of attention in his tour, at every point taking sufficient time for adequate observation and thorough investigation, he sat down six months amidst the arts and antiquities of the historic city, making frequent excursions over the Campagna and among the neighboring mountains. Six weeks additional were devoted to Naples, Vesuvius, the buried cities, the Sorrentine Promontory, and the most renowned localities of the Campania Felix; a month to Florence and the Val d Arno, including Pisa and Livorno; another to Venice, Padua, Verona, and Milan; and a fortnight to miscellaneous wanderings over the plains of Lombardy, and farewell lingerings around those incomparable lakes. In the churches and palaces of Rome, Florence, and the sea-born city; on the breezy heights of Albano, Frascati, Tusculum, and Tivoli; amid the flowers and brambles that cover the slopes of Veii and Fidenae, and the caverns and craters that enclose the Elysian Fields; in the fiery caldron of Vesuvius, the chestnut groves of Monte Sant Angelo, and the excavated villas of Herculaneum and Pompeii; in the sweet vineyards of La Cava, the blooming ravines of Amalfi, the caverned rocks of Cuma and Misenum, and along the ruin-strewn coast beyond the tunnelled ridge of Posilippo; in the marble miracle of Milano, the enchanting Borromean Islands, the groves and gardens that environ the blue waters of Como, and the castles and convents crowning a hundred heights with outlooks over as many paradises; - were single hours enjoyed worth ten years of peaceful life in any other region...
