CHRISTIANITY (CLASSIC REPRINT) (HARDBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Christianity That, like Wesley and most other reformers, Christ first tried to work through the existing religious stitutions is probable: the traditions of his early teaching in synagogues are clear. They may have ten ultimately closed against him, or the crowds ay have swelled so that he could only address them t of doors. We know very little of the mental eases md struggles through which he passed in the irty years preceding his public consecration by tptism to the new kingdom preached by John. But hr that he speaks as one who feels himself member a new society, and by no means reakm Qwfull extent and bearing of the revolution he espoused. He has rebelled against his class, and taken his place with the humblest religious community, which boasted of the poverty of their prophet, whose food was wild honey and his dress a leathem girdle. Christ is impatient of anything inharmonious with the equality and democracy of the fraternity he has entered. It is curious to peruse the laborious pedigrees by which the gospels try to connect him with royalty, and the homage afterwards paid by the church to his mother, beside the records of his own repudiation of such things. They tell him his mother and brothers stand outside and wish to speak to him but he points to his followers, and will acknowledgl only them as mother and brothers. Blessed is the womb that bare thee l cries a woman; but, with the like impatience, he exclaims N o l blessed are the] who hear the word of God and keep it. There is t strong infusion of the Essene communism in this, ant there are not...
