Random House LCC US, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Move over, John Green; Zentner is coming for you. ?The New York Public Library ?Will fill the infinite space that was left in your chest after you finished The Perks of Being a Wallflower.? ?A brutally honest portrayal of teen life . . . [and] a love letter to the South from a man who really understands ?I adored all three of these characters and the way they talked to and loved one another.??New York Times Named one of the Most Anticipated YA Books of 2016 by Paste Magazine and Dill has had to wrestle with vipers his whole life?at home, as the only son of a Pentecostal minister who urges him to handle poisonous rattlesnakes, and at school, where he faces down bullies who target him for his father?s extreme faith and very public fall from grace. The only antidote to all this venom is his friendship with fellow outcasts Travis and Lydia. But as they are starting their senior year, Dill feels the coils of his future tightening around him. Dill?s only escapes are his music and his secret feelings for Lydia?neither of which he is brave enough to share. Graduation feels more like an ending to Dill than a beginning. But even before then, he must cope with another ending?one that will rock his life to the core. Debut novelist Jeff Zentner provides an unblinking and at times comic view of the hard realities of growing up in the Bible belt, and an intimate look at the struggles to find one?s true self in the wreckage of the past. ?A story about friendship, family and forgiveness, it?s as funny and witty as it is utterly heartbreaking.? From the...
