A glimpse of your name, handwritten in calligraphy, tells you this isn't just another bill. Pushing aside the junk mail like tares from the wheat, you snatch the envelope and open the gold-lined seal to find - An invitation It is from a friend, offering you the chance to mend a broken relationship. This study will not only shed light on the answers to these questions but also present the rich Biblical principles on which they are based. It is written in an easy-to-read, interactive format, guiding the reader to identify his...
