Slides and Photographs: List 18 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By New York University

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Slides and Photographs: List 18 Portraits. Attention is directed particularly to the portraits of the collection. These have been made in almost every case directly from paintings from life or from photographic negatives from life. Such reproductions are much superior to portraits usually within reach of the student. The half-tone cut is a poor substitute for a lantern slide or photographic print made directly from a good original negative. The features and facial expression of an author should become familiar to the student through the best mediums possible. Emphasis is put upon the desirability of having the student see these portraits a number of times. Schools may well use both the slides and the prints, the former for class exercises and the latter to be seen on the bulletin board or the library table by individuals.
