Excerpt from Trade Union Conditions in Hungary: Documents Presented by the Mission of Inquiry of the International Labour Office (August-September 1920) As an introduction to the evidence which has been collected with regard to trade union rights and the regulation of conditions of labour in Hungary, a brief review of the political situation seems necessary. After the defeat of the armies of the Dual Monarchy, political events developed very rapidly in Hungary; on October 20, 1918, King Charles VI requested Count Michael Karolyi to form a Cabinet, Hungary declared its independence on the 31, and on November 16 the Republic was officially proclaimed these events are known in Hungary as the October Revolution The Karolyi Government remained in power from October 31, 1918, to March 21, 1919, when Count Michael Karolyi handed over the power to the Hungarian proletariat, and a Communist Government replaced the Hungarian Democratic Government. The system of People's Commissaries, the most remarkable of whom was Bela Kun, lasted exactly 133 days. The Roumanian troops defeated the Red army and occupied the capital the Communist Government was dissolved, and on August 1, 1919, a Socialist Government was formed with Mr. Peidl as President.
